COMMENTS ON STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE AND NOTICE OF ALLOWABILITY

Sir:

A Notice of Allowability, including an Examiner's Statement of Reasons for Allowance, was issued on May 10, 2005. The Notice of Allowability, as well as the Examiner's Statement of Reasons for Allowance, identified the allowed claims as 1, 3, 5, 8 through 13, 16 through 21, 24 through 29, 32 through 36, 38, 41 through 46, 49 through 54, 57 through 62, and 65 through 81. However, the Notice of Allowability and the Examiner's

Statement of Reasons for Allowance incorrectly identified the allowed claims since claim 2 was omitted.

Claim 2 appeared in the Amendment and Response filed November 11, 2004 (the "Amendment"). In addition, the Notice of Allowability mailed November 24, 2004, which was responsive to the Amendment, identified the allowed claims as 1 through 3, 5, 8 through 13, 16 through 21, 24 through 29, 32 through 36, 38, 41 through 46, 49 through 54, 57 through 62, and 65 through 81. Thus, the Notice of Allowability and the Examiner's Statement of Reasons for Allowance mailed May 10, 2005, should have included claim 2.

The Examiner's Statement of Reasons for Allowance cited particular claim elements that are present in some of the independent claims. To the extent that the Examiner's Reasons for Allowance suggest or state that certain limitations or combinations not found in the prior art are present in each and every claim whether or not specific language to that effect is found in every claim, the undersigned disagrees. Such limitations or combinations are present only when recited by the claims. It is noted that "the record as a whole" must be considered as a supplement to the Statement of Reasons for Allowance. To the extent that the record is clear and complete, it shall control the interpretation of any and all claims.

If there are any issues that can be addressed via telephone conference, the Examiner is invited to call the undersigned at (404) 685-6799.

Respectfully submitted,

Brenda O. Holmes
